WILL NOT SPARE THE GUILTY SOLONS NO WHITEWASHING

Senator Todd, Chairman of the Investigating Committee, Makes Plain the Purpose of the Investigators. No Guilty Man Shall Escape, He Says--Jury to be Left Unhampered.

WANTS TO PROTECT INNOCENT

Chairman of Senate Probe Committee Franklin County Legislator Explains Objects of Inquiry—Will Co-operate With Grand Jury and Will Not Grant Immunity to Those Who Testify as to Alleged Crooked Work by Lobbyists.

Columbus, O., May 13.—The attitude of the committee named by the senate to investigate charges of bribery against members of the general assembly with reference to the inquiry now being conducted by Prosecuting Attorney Turner and the Franklin county grand jury, was made clear in a statement issued by chairman John E. Todd of Franklin county. After reviewing events which led up to the appointing of the committee, its organization, the appointment of subcommittees and preparation for an exhaustive investigation of all charges and rumors affecting integrity of the members of the general assembly, Senator Todd made the assertion that immediately following the naming of the committee an organized effort to effect its suppression was set in motion by certain friends of the members, who urged them to resign. He also avers that the columns of the daily papers were filled with insinuations that the senate in appointing a committee was for the purpose of "whitewashing" members of the general assembly or giving them immunity from prosecution by calling them to testify before the committee.

Chairman Todd asserts that these attempts to disrupt the committee and discredit it in advance of its actual investigation and report was apparently to prevent any investigation by the general assembly of the charges against the members. Mr. Todd then says:

Denies Published Statements. The published statements that it was the intention and purpose of the committee to grant immunity to members of the general assembly is without foundation.

He is authorized by the committee to say that it is not the intention of the committee in any way interfere with or hamper the work of the grand jury of Franklin county, nor is it the intention of the committee to grant immunity to any member of the general assembly to secure immunity whom the prosecuting attorney of Franklin county believes he can indict and prosecute for wrongdoing. There are any members of the general assembly guilty of the crime of bribery or soliciting bribes, the committee certainly will not make his own sentiments and, he says, the sentiments of the entire committee, that such persons should be punished and fittingly punished. As far as the chairman of the committee can control its actions, it will be done that will in any way interfere with the accomplishment of this result. There is, however, a field of inquiry in which the committee can appropriately and fully work without in any way interfering with the legitimate scope of work of the grand jury. The charges made reflect upon all members of the general assembly, the innocent as well as the guilty. It is the duty of the committee to get the right and the duty of the general assembly, through its action, to acquit innocent members of that body from the unjust insinuations and accusations that have been made against them.

Popular Clamor Unheeded. The work of the committee will be done itself, uninfluenced by fear or favor and undeterred by misrepresentations or popular clamor aroused thereby.

"If the investigation should disclose that any members of the general assembly have been guilty of improper conduct, it is not only the right, but the duty of that body to purge itself of such unworthy members. This duty the chairman believes the committee will also fearlessly discharge."

Not Yet Ready To Report

Graft Grand Jury to Hear Traction Magnate's Story.

Columbus, O., May 13.—Prosecuting Attorney Turner assigned the case of Representative George B. Nye, indicted for bribery, for trial next Wednesday, May 17. Senator L. R. Andrews and Rodney J. Diegel, senate sergeant-at-arms, are to be tried next. The grand jury adjourned for the week without making a report. Sessions will be resumed Monday.

The investigation of the grand jury took a new tack when Prosecutor Turner issued a "forthwith" subpoena to W. Kelsey Schoepf of Cincinnati, president of the Cincinnati Traction company and the head of large urban interests in Ohio. It is said that Schoepf will be questioned relative to rumors of demands having been made of him by certain senators during the drafting of the amendments to the Winters public utilities bill.

Penitentiary Matron Resigns.

Columbus, O., May 13.—Miss Mabel Beck, matron of the female department of the prison, handed in her resignation, to take effect on June 1. Ill health was the cause. Miss Cornelia, who has been assistant, was promoted to the vacancy, and Mrs. Emma G. Hussman of Lima will take Miss Beck's place.

Millionaires May Turn From the Automobile To the Aeroplane In Search For New Recreation.

At the recent aviation meet at Bridgeport, Conn., Hon. William E. Burnham and General Henry A. Bishop, wealthy bankers of that city, were conspicuous in their enthusiasm over the flying game, and it has since been reported that one or both of them have been seriously considering the purchase of an aeroplane. Several millionaires, tiring of the monotony of their automobiles, have evidenced an interest in the newer sport. Prominent among these are Clifford B. Harmon and J. Armstrong Drexel, both of whom have become famous in the aviation field. Mr. Drexel has appeared in a number of public competitions, while Mr. Harmon flies solely for pleasure.

STIMPSON ACCEPTS THE PORTFOLIO OF WAR SUCCEEDS DICKINSON

President Taft Names the New York Man to Fill the Cabinet Position Made Vacant by Resignation--Reports of Friction on Mexican Situation Vigorously Denied by Retiring Secretary.

CHANGE WAS NOT UNEXPECTED

Retiring Secretary of War Tells President Taft That Business Affairs Call Him Back to Private Life. Successor Is Protege of Colonel Roosevelt and Obtained Considerable Fame in Sugar Fraud Cases and as Man Who Convicted Moros.

Washington, May 13.—Announcement of the resignation of Jacob M. Dickinson as secretary of war in the Taft cabinet and the selection of Henry L. Stimson of New York as his successor was made at the White House. It is also announced that the resignation is to become effective immediately upon the qualification of Mr. Stimson, which will be the latter part of next week. President Taft will confer with Mr. Stimson in New York tomorrow, when the exact date of the change at the head of the war department will be determined.

The resignation of Mr. Dickinson marks the second break in the Taft cabinet. Richard A. Ballinger handed in his resignation as secretary of the interior on April 7, and was succeeded a week later by Walter L. Fisher of Illinois.

Mr. Stimson's nomination will give New York two places in the cabinet, George Wickersham of that state now holding the office of attorney general. The official correspondence given out at the White House shows that Secretary Dickinson presented his letter of resignation to the president on April 28.

Will Look After Own Business.

Secretary Dickinson gives business reasons as his motive for retiring from the cabinet. While there have been reports from time to time in the past year that Mr. Dickinson contemplated returning to private life, the official announcement of his resignation came as a surprise to official and political Washington.

Henry L. Stimson first came into general public notice in January, 1896, when President Roosevelt appointed him United States district attorney for the southern district of New York. The three years which Mr. Stimson spent in the office were notable for the number of conspic-

MADERO

Not in Peaceful Mood

Turns Deaf Ear to Proposal to Renew Peace Negotiations

Federal Go-Betweens Are Busy Trying to Secure Consent of Insurrectos to Another Conference.

SETS UP TEMPORARY CAPITOL

Insurrectos Continue Preparations to Defend Juarez From Possible Attack by General Rabago's Command and Have Aggressive Campaign in Contemplation—United States Government Lifts Embargo on Arms and Ammunition.

El Paso, Tex., May 13.—Peace plans are not worrying the officers of the insurrecto national government, who are going right along with their preparations for war. The federal go-betweens, Obregon and Branniff, are making efforts to bring the federalists and insurrectos together, but Madero and his counselors are paying little attention to peace talk, having little faith in it, and on the contrary are preparing for war. They do not believe that General Rabago is coming from Chihuahua to attack the town, but are preparing to meet him outside if he does. Madero installed himself in the Juarez customs house.

The dispatch from Washington stating that supplies of all sorts would be permitted to be taken into Juarez if properly entered through the customs house on this side caused general rejoicing among the leaders. They look upon it as a tentative recognition of their cause. Exportations of food through the El Paso port to Juarez are now being made regularly, the only requirement being that they must be properly manifested at the El Paso customs house. No importations from Juarez have yet been entered at the El Paso customs house. No mail is being sent to Juarez and none will be sent, as it is necessary to get a receipt for the mail, and no one is authorized to receive mail but regularly accredited Mexican federal government officials.

Newark Rioters Sentenced

Two Plead Guilty at Newark and Go to Mansfield.

Newark, O., May 13.—The cases of six men and boys held in the county jail since last July under first degree murder charges, indicted for the lynching of Anti-Saloon Detective Carl Etherington, were disposed of in a bunch.

Declaring that the so-called "good citizens" who stayed at home on Newark's "black Friday" and permitted the mob to hold "full sway" were more guilty than the hot-headed boys who participated, Judge Nicholas released Edward Schoeller, 19, and approved the nolle prosequi of the indictment against Weldon Denny, 19. To Vincent Sutley and Elmer Seary he gave indeterminate Mansfield terms.

Joe Bush, who turned state's evidence in the Bolton trial and admitted that he was one of the men who dragged young Etherington from his cell, was given a Mansfield sentence.

Clarence Mulligan, 40, was released when the state's attorneys told the court that their star witness in his case was not sure of his identification.

ANOTHER SAVAGE DOG ATTACKS AND WOUNDS MAN ON PUBLIC HIGHWAY

Friday afternoon John Hicks, a resident of Bloomingburg, was bitten on the arm by a savage dog owned by Thomas Palmer, of the Jeffersonville pike, and this morning the wounded man was causing him so much pain and was swollen so badly that he had friends to appeal to the county for aid, as he is unable to pay for treatment.

Hicks was passing the Palmer residence when one of the two dogs kept by Mr. Palmer, ran out and sprang upon Hicks, snapping his arm. The wound was not a very severe one and Mr. Hicks thought little of it at the time, but it is said that he became worried about the wound, and was much concerned as to whether the dog was suffering from the rabies.

It is said that the Moore "mad stone" was applied to the wound and adhered for some time, but this report has not been confirmed. The Palmer home is near the Wm. Craig home where a savage dog bit the Craig child.

Mr. Palmer says that the dog is a savage animal, and that it has not shown the least symptoms of rabies nor has it acted in any but a normal manner, other than attacking Mr. Hicks. The dog has been muzzled as a precaution against further trouble of the same kind.

JAMES SMITH ORDERED TO LEAVE CITY

Jim Smith, the man who occupied the rooms over the ladies' waiting room at the Arcade Livery stable, and who sheltered Harry Zornes and Virgil Johnson who were pilfering buggies in this city last Saturday night.

Smith was given notice by Mayor Allen that if he did not "dig" something very heavy was going to drop upon him. He took the hint and the down train carried him to Jackson. His wife went to the home of friends near Parrotts Station. This eliminates one family from the "Persinger Flats" which have been occupied by the "elite" for some time.

Smith is the one who notified the authorities that his brother and the Chestnut woman were living together on the McCoy farm near Wesley Chapel, a few weeks ago. Johnson and Zornes stated that Smith had carried out some crooked deals since moving from the Persinger farm.

Harry Zornes Goes Free

Officers of the Boys' Industrial school at Lancaster failing to appear to take charge of Harry Zornes, one of the boys caught stealing goods from rigs in this city last Saturday night, was yesterday turned loose and went to Portsmouth to take up work.

Zornes had laid in the county jail since his arrest, and his story became known, inciting some pity for the young man. Before releasing him he was put through a strenuous drill by Mayor Allen, to see if his ability as a drill-master met with his claims. He showed his ability to handle a gun in a surprisingly alert and perfect manner, to the admiration of those who saw the drill.

Zornes' father lives near Johnson's Crossing.

Claims Papers Mislead Public

Senator Holdren, of Bloomingburg, and Representative Lewis of Greene county, during a short conversation between trains in this city Friday, stated that Columbus newspapers are exceedingly misleading in their report of legislative proceedings, greatly overdrawing and overcoloring movements of the lawmakers.

The claim that the newspapers have not given a square deal, and are very much wrought up over the sensational manner in which things of little importance are enlarged upon and garbed in the most vicious manner.

The remains of Marvin Wiggins, who was crushed to death in a sewer cave-in in Circleville, Thursday, was recovered late Thursday evening, and found to be badly crushed under the great mass of sand and gravel which had fallen upon him while he was at work.

The remains were interred in the Stoutsville cemetery Saturday.

Young Wife Waits For Recreant Husband

At the residence of her uncle, Thomas Leeth, in Bloomingburg, Mrs. Clyde McBee, eighteen-year-old, awaits the return of her husband, who is wanted for choking and abusing her during a fit of anger on the night of May 1st.

McBee has not been heard from, and may not return, although those who know him insist that he will return to his young wife whom he deserted when a warrant was filed for his arrest.

New Matron At Ohio Pen

Miss Mabel Beck, matron of the Ohio Penitentiary, has resigned her position, and Mrs. Cora Wells of Pickaway county was appointed to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Wells has been assistant Matron for some time. Mrs. Ella Huffman, of Lima has been appointed assistant matron.

Closing Recital Presents Concert Program

The third and last of the annual May recitals given by the pupils of Miss Light, at the First Baptist church Friday night, proved a successful climax to the year's work and brought realization of conscientious and efficient work on the part of both pupils and teacher.

The church held an audience that taxed its capacity. There were no decorations other than the group of pretty young pianists, who in dainty white gowns, with bows of pale pink and blue made up a bouquet of spring beauties that brooked no rival.

The program was given by Miss Light's most advanced pupils and was really a delightful concert. The variety and beauty of the compositions, the excellent technique shown in the renditions, and the poise with which the pupils played, combined to win plaudits for the young performers.

In the class are several girls possessing very unusual talent and their reading of the music and artistic interpretation promises to add new names to the lists of Washington's future musicians.

Solo numbers were played by Misses Sylvia Snider, Nina Dahl, Lucy McElwain, Gladys Locke, Mary Weaver, Dorothy Saxton, Lillian Davis, Jane Saxton, Constance Ballard, Ada Woodward and Helen Harper. Miss Mary Craig, who was on the program, was detained by illness.

In addition to the solos, there were three brilliant duets. Misses Helen Harper and Nina Dahl opened the program with a beautiful waltz. Misses Mary Weaver and Jane Saxton playing a Haydn Theme, with variations artistically, and Misses Ada Woodward and Helen Harper closing the program with a fantastic duet, "Marche Grotesque, C. Sinding.

Miss Claribel Smith, a vocal pupil of Miss Gardner, added much to the pleasure of the program by her solos. She has a lyric soprano, sweet and of a bell-like clearness. She sang a group of Mary Turner Salter's charming songs and "Awake Beloved" by Wm. G. Dodd.

Miss Lois Jones was most artistic in her work as accompanist.

A BAD BREAK.

By uttering five words Senator Coke L. Doster, of this Senatorial District has jumped into the very center of the spotlight and has succeeded in attracting more attention to himself than any one at present concerned in the big "doins" now on at the State Capital.

It is not likely either that the unpleasant notoriety which Senator Doster is now accorded will be confined to Ohio. It promises to extend over a much wider scope and his words to be used as political thunder for years to come.

In speaking on the proposal to have the Senate do its own investigating on the bribery scandal, Senator Doster said, "To hell with public opinion."

Those who know Senator Doster insist that he did not mean what the words used, expressed; that he has a high regard for public opinion.

All of which may be true, but the public is not just now, in a frame of mind to take kindly to such an utterance from a member of the Ohio Legislature. The public opinion is intense at this time and the public is incensed over the charges made against its public servants. This is the very worst time possible to say, "To hell with public opinion."

Under a different state of "public opinion" Senator Doster's remark might not have attracted the attention and the unfavorable comment which is now given it.

Always a dangerous and highly improper remark to make the serious import of the language is not always considered, and charged against the speaker, but on occasions such as now exist, it is absolutely suicidal.

Public opinion is now in no mood to be crossed. Most of the time it lies tranquil, but now it is an aroused outraged and vindictive force which refuses to be told to "go to hell". Public opinion rules this great nation and public opinion built this government on principles approved by public opinion and enduring as time.

That great force, in the truest and highest sense, is responsible for all the good we have, as a nation accomplished. It makes and unmakes men, controls elections, maintains the army and the navy and proper respect for it means popularity and political preferment, while contempt for it means oblivion.

Public opinion makes the maps of the world, sustains religion and curbs criminality in all its forms. It is the greatest human force and no man and no policy can endure its displeasure.

It was public opinion which sustained Washington and Lincoln in hours of national peril, and it was public opinion which demanded of Charles the 1st, his head, of Louis XVI his throne, and enabled Napoleon to hold at bay the armies of allied Europe.

"To hell with public opinion."

Not while the world revolves and men remain human.

GO TO IT!

The man that gets the dollar is the man that keeps after it. Do not expect it to come to you. Go to it.

Hustle is the medicine that makes healthy home trade.

A good town does not happen by accident. It represents the WORK of the people who are in it.

A prosperous store does not "just grow," like Topsy. It is the result of the owner's LABOR.

Make every dollar do some tall running before it gets away from you and then DO NOT LET IT GET AWAY.

Hard work wins home trade.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THE RURALES.

(In most of the fighting in Mexico the rurales have rendered marvelously efficient service for the Federals. In the state of Guerrero 100 rurales have held the important towns against 5,000 rebels.—Press Dispatch.)

Their silver trappings catch the sun
As o'er the plains they ride.
A grim and wiry lot each one
A nation's hope and pride;
Swift and relentless—through this band
Speaks Diaz of the Iron Hand.

Yon cactus-strewn and rocky place
May hold a foe secure,
But never slacks the bronco's pace
Till victory is sure;
War's a rare pastime for the gods
When played with men who never count odds.

It may be that some fainthearts
Shame
The flag of Mexico.
But only follows deathless fame
Where these grim horsemen go;
Soldiers, check then each foaming brute—
The whole world's standing at salute!
—Denver Republican

Insanity

Insanity is a condition still visited with opprobrium. This point of view is, however, a relic of an unintelligent and unscientific past. All wrong ways of feeling, thinking and acting have an actual physical basis. Nothing is more hurtful than the habit of constantly dwelling, either within oneself or in conversation with others, upon the petty details of life. With the transgression of physiological laws, a well-nigh indelible impress is made upon nerve and brain cells, which require a long time to recover, when once they have been interfered with. To insure the best of nerve and mental health, everything must be clean within and without. In no other way will the highest development, whether of body, mind or what the world is pleased to call soul, be attained.

The unvarying round of the domestic woman's life may be so dominated by her intelligence, her acquisition of knowledge, her appreciation of things beautiful, whether in her home and children, in nature, art, music or science, as to sweeten and dignify even the piling of potatoes, washing of dishes, sweeping, dusting, what you will. No matter how humdrum, how trying, how often repeated are these petty details, they may all be dignified by the right mental attitude. In order to secure and maintain this attitude it is necessary to observe the laws which govern all the habits of life. This cannot be done, if the monotony of duty, whether domestic, social or professional is not varied by change to healthful play or different work.

When the daily grind "gets on one's nerve," so to speak, when everything seems "stale, flat and unprofitable," when nothing lifts, nothing inspires, either to the performance of duty, to higher living and thinking; when bodies are tired, heavy, full of painful sensations, when heads ache, nerves are awry, sleep fitful and unrefreshing, or drowsiness extreme; when thoughts and feelings give pain instead of pleasure, and life becomes a burden rather than a joy—then look to the habits of life, or something is wrong.

SAVED CHILD FROM DEATH.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctor's medicine seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and our child is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, laryngitis, asthma, croup and sore lungs, its most infallible remedy that's made. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Blackmer & Tanquary.

The Home Beautiful.

How often we hear a man say that five or ten years ago if he had put his savings into a home it would have been his own at the present time. A home similar to the one shown here is not expensive, and can be built by any one with the saving habit ordinarily developed, and even if reasonable priced, possesses an originality and distinctiveness sometimes lacking to properties doubly expensive. Think it over
 Mr. Family man and you will be surprised at the ease with which you can acquire a home in your own right.

Frame one and one-half story cottage. Size 21 ft. 6 in. x 34 ft. Height of stories: First 9 feet 6

Oiling the Streets Valuable Information From Those Who Know

Many of our citizens are deeply interested in the experiment now being tried of oiling our city streets as a means to keep down the dust.

Much interest has attached to the work now completed and that in process as well as that which is contemplated.

For the benefit of those who desire information on the subject the following communication addressed to Mr. Frank Johnson by The Standard Oil Company, contains much of interest.

"Mr. Frank Johnson:
"For the best results, the surface of a macadam or gravel road should be in good condition, free from ruts and holes, and always clean off dust and filth.
"The quantity to be used will depend upon the amount of oil the roadway will absorb.
"Sufficient time should be allowed for the oil to penetrate the roadway, then the work is much improved by a thin covering of clean screenings, clean gravel or clean, sharp sand, to absorb any surplus oil. Whenever, practicable, one side should be closed to traffic, oiled and finished as above, and then the other side treated.

"In some localities it is permissible to sprinkle, or damped the road way. But generally, the drier the road, the hotter the sun, the better the results.

"In other words, the warmer the ground, the quicker the penetration.
"Whenever a roadway is spiked by a steam roller or torn by a harrow, and restored to a proper crown, by the use of one or two inches of one inch stone and screenings, a boulevard of elegant appearance and serviceable use is created.
"When the oil is heated to a temperature of 180 to 200 degrees and so applied, the penetration is more efficient and an ideal driveway is assured.

Draft Horses Shipped to R. C. Hunt

Mr. B. F. Jamison shipped to Mr. R. C. Hunt at Myersdale, Pa., this week a carload of horses to be used in the excavating work of the enormous tunnel which Mr. Hunt is engineering on the B. & O. railway.

They were mated teams of as good draft horses, around 1500 and 1600 pounds as ever left Washington C. H., and will make a good showing for Fayette county, in Pennsylvania.

DO GHOSTS HAUNT SWAMPS?

No. Never. It's foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous, and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy only. 50c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

Officers Expect To be Called

Local officers of the O. N. G. are expected to be called to the front at any moment. During the past two days quite a number of officers have been detailed for duty on the frontier, among them being Major Horace Kelfer, son of General J. Warren Kelfer, of Springfield, who leaves the middle of next week.

Major Rell G. Allen will probably be among the next number ordered to the front.

FRIENDLESS FOREIGNERS LAND HERE

Pavka Cyril and wife, fresh from Moravia, Austria, were put off of the B. & O. in this city yesterday as their destination, having Fayette, Ohio, as their destination. Instead of Washington, Fayette County, O.

Standing helplessly at the B. & O. station the man and his wife were the objects of pity, and all was done to locate their brother-in-law John Holek, R. F. D. No. 13, Box 93, which they had inscribed in a book, but it was soon ascertained that Fayette, Fulton county, close to the Ohio-Michigan line, was their destination.

The wife, carrying a great bundle of clothing, tied up in a large red blanket, upon learning that they were in the wrong place, broke down and sobbed. They had come from Baltimore, where they landed several days ago, could not understand English, and were in a sad plight.

Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Hughey played the part of the Good Samaritan and Dr. Hughey telephoned to Fayette, learned that John Holek lived there, assisted the couple in securing quarters for the night and helped them on their journey, much to their delight.

THE OSBORN CHILD STILL AT CHILDREN'S HOME

The five-year-old daughter of Henry Osborn and wife, which was removed from the Osborn home and placed in the pest house at the County Children's Home several weeks ago, suffering from bronchial pneumonia and the measles at the time, is still at the home, and has fully recovered, hardly resembling the emaciated, vermin infested little body it was at the time of its removal.

Efforts are still being made to secure a return of the child to its home, which is in fairly good condition, but owing to the mother's condition, it being claimed that she is a confirmed epileptic, it is a question whether the child will be removed to the home at present.

It will be recalled that when the child was removed from its horrible surroundings, the mother attacked Officer Haggard with the broom. Attorney Lee Rankin represents the Osborns in trying to secure the recovery of the child, and has questioned the right of those who took the child, to take such action. There seems to be no doubt that their action was warranted by the conditions, if not by law, as it is claimed, owing to the awful conditions which surrounded the youngster her life was endangered.

NOTICE.

If you know the company and regiment in which the following named comrades served during the Civil War, please report to me immediately: Samuel Wood, Henry Ogborn, Robert Wilcox, Jef. McLellan. These names have been sent to me without giving the company and regiment in which they served. All corrections and additions must be reported before the 15th of May.

Each team had plenty of rooters.

The first inning ended with the score 2 to 0 for Sunnyside, Ninth being taken by surprise. In the next, however, the Graders rallied and slugged in 8 runs. After this the game was never in doubt.

SPORT LETTER

Cincinnati, O., May 11, 1911.

You never can tell, as our old friend, Bernard Shaw once remarked. One week ago the Reds were going like a lot of hot air, who had never seen anything that more resembled a base ball than a coconut. Then came a couple of victories over the Cubs and a nice pie feast at the expense of the Pirates—and zip, the team "has at last struck its gait." Thus it goes in base ball. Mutts one day and kings the next. However, in the case of the Reds, there is hope that the king thing is a permanent condition, and that henceforth will see them performing according to the terms of their contracts. There has been a noticeable increase in the intelligence manifested by the members of the team in the various departments of the game, and this with the fact that the pitchers again are going with some degree of regularity, indicates that the day of the slump is over, and that by the time the team returns from its present Eastern trip it will be giving performances the like of which have not been witnessed on the local lot in so many years.

It's inconceivable that men whose whole future depends upon their behaving themselves, will kick over the traces and do things which not only handicap their present, but threaten their future. Such a performance was given by George McQuillen, the star twirler of the Phillies, who was secured by the Reds last winter, and whose work so far this spring has been rather yellow. McQuillen came here with the reputation of being a "bad actor." However, he promised to do the right thing, and was shown all sorts of consideration. Yet the season isn't three weeks old before he breaks all rules and pledges, and proceeds to jeopardize his job and all for the sake of taking a few drinks. Luckily for Manager Griffith his other pitchers are going so well that McQuillen really is not missed. But think of the lack of common sense and good judgment there must be behind a man who'll act as McQuillen has.

The number of "recruits" who have made good in the big leagues so far this spring is exceedingly limited. Only once in a great while does one hear of a minor leaguer of last season being extolled as a "winner" in fast company. Among the few who have hit it up, "Pink" Rodie the Chicago White Sox outfielder, Joe Jackson, of the Cleveland, Bobby Keefe, of the Reds, and one or two others, are the only ones who have been continuously before the public as having sure enough made good. Naturally, Cincinnati is more concerned in the performances of Bobby Keefe than of any of the others, and it may be said without fear of contradiction that he is one of the real finds of the season. His several performances on the rubber since the season opened have been such as to assure him a permanent job with the Reds, and it goes without saying that he'll improve as the season progresses. Keep your eyes on this one on the present Eastern trip and after the Reds return home.

There will be more excitement to the square inch over at the Latonia race track Saturday, May 13 and Sunday, May 14, than that famous course ever before has witnessed. The general public now is deeply interested in anything that looks like an automobile; and the announcement that more than twenty of the leading racing cars of America, with drivers of international fame, will compete in a series of six races on each of the two days mentioned, the sport on Saturday winding up with a one-hour race, while on Sunday the piece de resistance will be a 50-mile free-for-all, in which there will be fifteen or more starters. Besides these six automobile events on each day, there will be a five-mile and a ten-mile motor cycle race on both Saturday and Sunday, bringing out the most daring riders in the Ohio Valley. Nothing but excitement is promised, and all roads leading into Cincinnati will run excursions.

Just now the world looks upon Ad Wolgast as the greatest fighter of his inches in the ring. But it might have been otherwise. Less than three years ago he was a common barroom loafer, and one of his haunts was Jim Jeffries' saloon out in Los Angeles. He made himself so obnoxious that Jeffries finally was forced to order him away. However, Jim followed the youngster out, gave him some good advice, which Wolgast followed; and today he's at the top of his class. Had Jeffries merely kicked him out and let it go at that, Wolgast probably would be a nonentity today instead of a star.

The racing game dead? Not so you can notice it. Down Baltimore way they're asking for more dates for this fall than Pimlico ever before has had, while the reports from Lexington are that on Saturday more people gathered to see the runners than ever before assembled at the famous Blue Grass track. The outlook for Latonia, which opens soon, is equally bright. There will not be as many tracks in operation this year as heretofore, but those that are doing business certainly will get the crowds.

What Constitutes a Good Investment

"It is Easier to Earn Money Than to Save It."

How to invest savings, or surplus funds of any kind, is frequently a difficult problem. How to be sure that the principal will be safe; that the interest will be paid promptly; that in case of necessity the investment can readily be converted into cash—all of these points which enter so vitally into the life of a good investment are not always easy of determination. This Bank offers you in its an investment for savings and surplus funds meeting all the above requirements. We will be pleased to take up the matter with you at any time.

Centennial Commission Is Busy

With Money in Sight They Pl. Big Time at Capital.

Columbus, O., May 13.—The house of representatives has placed its seal of approval on the plans of celebrating the Ohio-Columbus centennial as outlined by the members of the commission. With the exception of the concurrence in an amendment, which the senate will undoubtedly yield to, the bill is now ready for the signature of Governor Harmon. The bill was introduced early in the session by Senator Todd of Franklin. It passed the senate by a vote of 26 to 3, and is now ready to become a law.

In the house Representative Hanby R. Jones, Representative Joseph E. Bertach and Representative Richard K. Reynolds were active in securing its passage. The bill was fortunate in having the endorsement of the finance committee and the recognition of the calendar committee. The bill appropriates the sum of $25,000 to be used in defraying the expenses of the celebration and specifically authorizes the commission to raise further funds. It is the intention of that body to organize immediately for that purpose, and to carry on a campaign as rapidly and as vigorously as possible.

The estimated expenses of the entire centennial celebration are placed at $500,000, so that it is apparent that the state has been asked to bear but a trifling proportion of the expense. From the very first the centennial project has met with cordial endorsement throughout the length and breadth of the state.

Two Men Injured.

Upper Sandusky, O., May 13.—A heavy electrical storm, accompanied by a miniature cyclone, passed over this county. The barn of H. C. Bland was struck by lightning and five horses being hitched ran away and dragged Bland and Robert Baughman. The injured men were stunned by the lightning and injured by the horses.

Newspaper Contests Are Hit Hard Blow

Columbus, O., May 13.—The Andrews puzzle bill was passed by the house of representatives, and now goes to the governor for his signature. The bill provides that where a person is declared a winner in a newspaper guessing or puzzle contest he may demand that he be paid in money, and the person making the offer must comply, under pain of imprisonment, or both. If the winner does not demand cash he must be given cash or the equivalent of his prize in merchandise.

Passengers All Saved When Liner Sinks

Merida Rammed By Fruitier Admiral Farragut.

New York, May 13.—The Ward liner Merida, from Vera Cruz, Progreso and Havana, was rammed amidships by the fruitier Admiral Farragut of the American Mail steamship line, in a heavy fog, 55 miles east and one-half north of Cape Charles, and after the transfer of the passengers and crew of the Merida to the Admiral Farragut the Ward liner foundered in 35 fathoms—210 feet—beyond the hope of salvage and too deep to interfere with the progress of the deepest ships.

All the Merida's passengers, 202 in number, were saved. One, a woman, was injured, but not severely. The story of the disaster was told by wireless long before the passengers, officers and crew of the Merida arrived in Norfolk aboard the Old Dominion steamship Hamilton, which took them from the Admiral Farragut.

Buckeye Farmer Creates Sensation at Senate Hearing.

Washington, May 13.—Indignant at what he called insulting inference that the farmers of the country had acted improperly in employing lawyers to advise them in their fight against Canadian reciprocity, N. P. Hull, head of the Grangers, notified the senate finance committee he would have the attorneys of the Grangers appear next week to answer questions.

C. M. Freeman, former secretary and treasurer of the National Grange, who now resides in Miami county, Ohio, developed during the few minutes he addressed the committee a voice of such far-reaching power as to penetrate the corridors and bring great throngs of senate clerks and messengers to the doors of the committee room, who came to discover what the trouble was all about.

Packers Dealt Blow By Judge Carpenter

Federal Judge Overrules Demurrers to Indictments.

Chicago, May 13.—The demurrers of the Chicago packers in the "beef trust" case were overruled by Judge Carpenter in the United States district court.

In his ruling Judge Carpenter declared that the Sherman anti-trust law, which had been attacked by the packers, is constitutional. He also held that the indictment charging J. Ogden Armour and other packers with violating its provisions is valid.

Stimson Accepts

the government prosecution. The sugar trust funds were foremost on the list, along with prosecution of several railroads for "drawbacks" given to the same trust. Some $3,000,000 was returned to the government as a result of the fraud prosecutions, and nearly $400,000 was collected in fines for rebating. It was under Mr. Stimson's administration also that E. H. Harriman was made to testify concerning his railroad operations and that Charles W. Morse was tried and convicted of embezzlement of funds of the National Bank of North America.

Mr. Stimson resigned soon after President Taft was inaugurated, but continued the prosecution of the sugar fraud cases as special counsel. When the Saratoga convention last summer was brought under the control of Colonel Roosevelt, Mr. Stimson received the nomination for governor.
